Working alongside the editorial staff of the Dictionary have been numerous freelance library researchers, concerned principally with tracing the earliest uses of terms and with the verification of quotations cited in the volume:

Washington: Adriana Orr (–1991), Daphne Gilbert-Carter, Nancy Balz (–1992), Melissa Conway (1990–91), Jon Simon, Dorothy Hanks, Shari Jacobson

Kingston, Ontario: Margery Fee.

San Francisco: Ken Feinstein.

Valuable additional assistance has been given by several others not on the permanent staff of the Dictionary:

Proof-reading: Hazel Clark, Simon Hunt, Veronica Hurst.

Proof administration: Susan Vickers.

A number of people have been involved in other aspects of the preparation of this volume. The Editors are particularly indebted to the following, who between them shared the task of reading and commenting on ranges of proofs:

Robert Barnhart, Dr Robert Burchfield, Michael Grose, Dr Philip Hardie, Terry Hoad, Deborah Honoré, Dr Harry Logan, Hazel Wright. In addition to those listed on p. x of the first volume of the Oxford English Dictionary, valuable specialist comment on individual entries has been given by Dr P. Baker, Dr D. Barrett, Dr H. C. Bennet-Clark, Professor J. Black, Mr R. J. Bowater, Dr L. D. Carrington, Dr M. Clark, Dr S. V. Clube, Mr H. S. Colvin, Ms M.-H. Corréard, Mr A. Credland, Dr Q. C. B. Cronk, Dr J. H. C. S. The Editors are sad to record the deaths during the preparation of the volume of four long-standing consultants: Professor J. Leech, Mr P. Kemp, Ms J. C. Swannell, and Professor T. G. Vallance.
